

ADMINISTRATION AGAIN EXPLAINS WAR MANEUVERS

Declare Movement on Mexican Border to be in Class with Movements of Battleships Around World

Intended to Show Interested Nations that United States is Prepared for Anything that May Happen.

(Special from United Press.)
Washington, March 22.—A martial demonstration in the interest of peace comparable with the world cruise of the battleship fleet.

This was the latest explanation of the Mexican situation made on behalf of the administration, today. The mobilization of troops along the Mexican border, it was declared, was to prove preparedness on the part of the United States to cope with the event which it was hoped would not transpire for the very reason that Uncle Sam was ready for them.

The world cruise of the battleship fleet was a notification to Japan that America had strength enough to maintain peace. The "maneuvers" along the Mexican border are a similar notice to interested nations.

The administration has never figured on any immediate exigency, it was said, except the protection of American property and lives, in case unwarlike events in the situation forced a decisive step. President Taft has realized from the very start of the "maneuvers" that Congressional sanction was necessary.

It has already been pointed out that war with Japan was a contingency, although remote, which might have developed if the United States had ignored the increasing friendship and alliance between Japan and Mexico.
Insofar as the martial demonstration on the border was designed to show the world that the United States was prepared to meet any emergency, it was described as a "show of force" and not a "show of weakness."

The statements of high officials, carried in these despatches last week, predicted that the outcome of the situation would prove to be of infinitely greater importance than was at first indicated.

The administration was compelled to maintain the attitude that the movement of troops was for the "maintenance of the neutrality of the law" and "maneuvers." It was said, today, that this was in line with the "stitch in time" policy of the administration. As the situation developed, described the situation as follows:

"It was the cue of Uncle Sam to take his cue from the world. He was to be exposed, roll up his sleeves, showing his muscles, take out his trusty blade—and then, after showing his shoulders to the world, tract attention, to sit down and whittle."

"The wily gentlemen for whom the stage was set were quick to appreciate the purpose of the act. The administration is unwilling to discuss what they did or to discuss the "inside situation." This hope resembled, today, the hope of a man who has been told that he observed anything. The fact remains that he is satisfied."

This explanation now indicates that never arise for an official statement of the "inside situation." This hope resembled, today, the hope of a
man who has been told that he

FEDERAL TRUST COMPANY GETS CHARTER TIME

Lakeview Cemetery Assoc. tion Authorized to Issue Bonds to Extent of $30,000

(Special from United Press.)
Hartford, March 22.—A favorable report was received in the Senate today extending the time two years for the organization of the Federal Trust company of Bridgeport. The members of the charter are interested in the Pequonnock National bank and it is the intention to take the trust company in connection with the bank during the coming two years.

The Senate in concurrence with the House adopted a resolution authorizing the Lakeview cemetery association to issue improvements bonds to the extent of $30,000.

The Senate also received the report of the committee on legislative expenses designating 11 newspaper men at compensation of $200 each. The original report providing for six reporters but was amended today to make the number 11. Senator Judson made an illuminating address in which he said he was totally opposed to gratuities. His contention was that the Senate, by designating official reporters would obviate a great many of the charges leveled at it for voting gratuities at the end of the session.
He said he recognized the value of the proper and legitimate dissemination of the doings of the General Assembly and if it was to be the policy of the Senate to recognize the value of this work in a substantial way, the time to indicate it was now and not at the end of the session.

Senator Barnum opposed consideration at this time. He said he believed that the newspaper men who were faithful in attendance, and conscientious in their reports, were not beneficiaries of any gift in the event of the session was a short one, he did not know that he would favor voting for any compensation for them.
It was an extended one he certainly would favor.

Barnum then moved to let the matter go to the foot of the calendar.
The vote was 15 to 10. The lieutenant governor broke the tie in favor of Senator Barnum's motion.

LABOR UNION SUE OF CASE

Secretary Morrison Gets After Postmaster General for Intimidating Railway Mail Clerks.

(Special from United Press.)
Washington, March 23.—Challenging Postmaster General Hitchcock to prove his right to prevent railway mail clerks from joining a union and threatening to take the matter before Congress, Frank Morrison, secretary of the American Federation of Labor, today, set forth, the union side of the impending struggle in the following statement, written for the United Press:

(By Frank Morrison.)
"I have read the communication of Second Assistant Postmaster General Stewart to Superintendent Grant, of the Railway Mail Service, which was transmitted to the district superintendents of the Railway Mail Service, throughout the country. The communication states that he (Stewart) desires that steps be taken at once to acquiesce in the fact that an organization is inimical to the interests of the government, but he (Stewart) fails to give any reasons."

"He intimates that a general organization would be in collusion with their oath of office."

"He says further, in substance, that when a clerk takes his oath of office it is impossible for him to join a union that would not interfere with his work as a railway postal clerk."

"These two statements are preposterous. There is nothing in the oath a clerk takes to prevent him from joining a union for his self-improvement and the betterment of his fellow workers."

"I challenge the Post Office department to point out in the oath of office taken by the clerks, anything that prevents them from joining a union."

"The union obligation taken by the railway mail clerks is not a secret obligation. I am satisfied that the officers of the Post Office department are fully aware of this fact."

BOOKER WASHINGTON HEARS FROM TAFT IS GOING SOUTH

Now Believed Man Charged with Simple Assault on Him May Never Be Tried

(Special from United Press.)
New York, March 22.—President Taft has written Dr. Booker T. Washington a personal letter expressing confidence in him and the hope that he will return to his work as the result of the assault made on him by Henry A. Ulrich.

At his apartments in the Hotel Manhattan, the noted negro educator said today that he has received more than 10,000 letters and telegrams from persons in every section of the United States expressing their confidence in him.

Dr. Washington today proudly exhibited a letter penned by President Taft himself, which read as follows:

"My Dear Doctor Washington: I am greatly distressed at your misfortune and hasten to write you of my sympathy. I hope that you will soon recover from the wounds inflicted by insane suspicion or viciousness, and resume your position as one of the great men of your race. Your confidence in the American race as well as to all the people of the world is a great power to solve the riddle of the most difficult problems before us."

"I want you to know that your friends are standing by you in every trial and that I am proud to sympathize with you. (Signed) William H. Taft."

With the case of Ulrich, charged with assaulting the noted educator, tried to the court of special sessions for trial, there was a growing conviction today that the matter has been finally disposed of. The charge against Ulrich, that he is only a misadventurer, whereas the original charge was felony.

Dr. Washington, on Sunday, will go South for an indefinite period. He will return to his work at Parkersburg, West Virginia, where he said, if his lawyers think it advisable, but he made it plain he has no desire to go further with the matter, unless his lawyers insist.

Dr. Washington said today that he did not believe the incident would have any ill effect on his work at Tuskegee. He said he had received letters and telegrams from every section of the country expressing sympathy and offering support. It is expected that the trustees of Tuskegee will adopt the formal resolutions for confidence in the doctor.

Wife Charged with Murder Is Carried Into Court

(Special from United Press.) Chicago, March 22.—Weak and almost helpless, Mrs. Theresa Schenk, held for the murder of her husband at Parkersburg, was almost carried into criminal court here today. After the acceptance of $10,000 bail, Mrs. Schenk was taken back to her home and placed under the care of a physician.

Assistant State's Attorney Reynolds will take the Schenk case to the grand jury at once.

BOLD THIEF ROBS WOMAN OF HANDBAG

As Mrs. Frank A. Burnham Walks in Iranistan Avenue at Noon Man Seizes Her Property and Runs.

While Mrs. Frank A. Burnham of 272 Black Rock avenue was walking in Iranistan avenue near State street at 12 o'clock this noon a man who passed her snatched her handbag and another man who saw the thief making his getaway put chase on him. The thief ran through Hanover street to Park avenue and disappeared.

Mrs. Burnham, who was unable to give a description of the thief, said that the bag only contained a little over $1. Others who saw the man said that he looked like a youth who had been applying for work at the West End factories this morning.

GREAT STRIKE AT PLANT OF SINGER CO.

Ten Thousand Employees Leave Works Near Gil-bowie in Scotland Because of Wage Dispute.

(Special from United Press.)
Glasgow, March 22.—The Singer Sewing Machine plant near Gilbowie, was closed today, by a strike of 10,000 employees, due to a wage dispute in the polishing department.

The open meeting at the Stratfield will be addressed by Mrs. Thomas N.
Hepburn of Hartford, president of the Connecticut association who will speak on "Woman Suffrage in its Relation to the Home and the State."

Mrs. Hepburn is wife of the well known physician of that name. She is the mother of two beautiful children and believes that women should have the ballot in order to assist in making the environment under which children must be reared. Bryn Mawr college has given Mrs. Hepburn a scholarship to study art for two years in Italy, following her college course and she studied social conditions in Germany, especially the condition of women there. She is known among the workers for woman suffrage in the United States and has lectured upon this subject in many of the great cities, including New York and Baltimore.

Miss Emily Pierson, State organizer, will speak on "Educated Women and Suffrage," in which she will discuss the development of the education of women, will be discussed from the period when girls were admitted to the public schools up to the present day, when they are admitted to institutions of higher learning on an equality with men.

This is likely to be an especially interesting talk because of the large part that college women are taking in the movement and because of the large number of collegiate suffrage leagues which have been formed.

Steps will be taken to have Bridgeport largely represented at the hearing on the constitutional amendment granting suffrage to women and she upon the bill granting municipal suffrage to women, which is to be held at Hartford, April 5, before the commissioners of the State.

The mass meeting to promote the cause of woman suffrage, which will be addressed by Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the National Association and Miss Inez Mill-holland, a Vassar graduate.

The afternoon session will be presented by Mrs. Edward Parker of Greenwich, press chairman for Connecticut; Miss Sarah Ruiz-Rees, chairman of Fairfield County; Mrs. Thomas N.
Hepburn, president of the Connecticut League; Mrs. Ernest Thompson Seton, vice-president of the State association; Mrs. F. A. L. Bennett, chairman of Hartford county and Miss Emily Pierson, State organizer. Great interest is shown by a small circle of Bridgeton ladies, the articles, the most influential and through whose efforts the movement here is expected to attain large proportions.

SENATOR PADDOCK AGAINST ABOLITION OF COMMISSION

Tuberculosis Commission, He Says, is Doing Great Work for Limitation of White Plague.

(Special from United Press.)
Hartford, March 22.—Senator Garry Paddock of Bridgeport, in response to what he considers to be the overwhelming sentiment of his constituents appeared before the committee on Human Institutions, today, in opposition to the abolishment of the Tuberculosis commission.

This is one of the commissions that Governor Baldwin recommended should be either abolished or merged with the State Board of Charities. Senator Paddock said his people believed that the Tuberculosis commission is doing a great work, especially among the poor class of wage earners who are afflicted with the dread disease.
Whereas he is opposed to changes in any form.

CARPENTERS WILL FIGHT FOR TRADE DISPUTE MEASURE

Will Send Delegates to Hearings in Hartford—
Other Unions to Take It Up.

At a meeting of the Bridgeport Carpenters' Union last night, it was voted to send two delegates to Hartford on Tuesday, March 23, to appear in favor of the Trades Dispute bill (Senator Paddock's bill), put in by the Bridgeport Labor conference, through Senator Archibald McNeill, Jr. The bill aims to permit strikers, peaceful picketing by labor organizations, and the labor organizations in furtherance of trades disputes.

Furthermore a committee was appointed to confer with the local Senators and Representatives and to urge them to support this measure.

Indications point to a lively battle in the Legislature upon this subject.
Workmen throughout the State have been aroused by the decisions in the Danbury hat case, and other similar affairs, and believe that the trades union must secure a change in the present laws, if they are to retain their strength.

The same matter will be brought before the Central Labor Union at its meeting tonight. It will come before the other unions later.

SLUM WORKERS WILL DISTRIBUTE CLOTHING

The Slum Workers of Bridgeport, with headquarters at 280 Nichols street, will on Saturday of this week distribute clothing, shoes, bedding, furniture and other articles to the poor of the city, who make application for help.

The Slum Workers have been helping the needy of the city for the past seven years. Donations of all kinds will be received by the Workers. A wagon will call for all articles.

WALL STREET TODAY.

(Special from United Press.) New York, March 22.—Opening the stock market became strong at the opening and many stocks were quoted at higher figures.

11 a. m.—After the first 15 minutes increased strength and activity developed with substantial advances in many issues.

Government bonds unchanged; other bonds steady.

Noon.—The improvements of the last half of the forenoon were maintained at midday.

WOMEN ACTIVE FOR EXTENSION OF FRANCHISE

Bridgeport to Be Well Represented at Hearing Before Double Committee of Assembly, April 5

Open Meeting in Stratfield Will Be Addressed by Mrs. Hepburn and Miss
Pierson—Mass Meeting
April 11.

Eastward the star of woman suffrage takes its way. Hopeful are the suffragists of Connecticut that this State will be the first in the East to grant full electoral powers to women.
Every effort is being made to have an imposing representation before the committee on constitutional amendments and woman suffrage, at Hartford, April 6.

In every town in the State interest is being stimulated by State Organizer Emily Pierson and other ladies devoted to the movement. The activity in Bridgeport is not small, although the circle of active adherents is not large. An open meeting of those who are interested in votes for women will be held at the Stratfield tomorrow afternoon, 3:30 o'clock. A mass meeting will be held in Warner hall, April 11.

Much is hoped for the movement from the fact that Senator Archibald McNeill, Jr., is chairman of the committee on constitutional amendments, and is an open adherent to the movement for full suffrage for women.

The open meeting at the Stratfield
will be addressed by Mrs. Thomas N.
Hepburn of Hartford, president of the Connecticut association who will speak
on "Woman Suffrage in its Relation

HEART BALM FOR MISS IVERSON

Jury in Suit for Breach of Promise Finds Against Edward Gannon, Commercial Traveler

Girl's Sad Story Convinced Triers that She Had Been Badly Treated by Whilom Fiance—Awarded $2,500.

Heart balm to the extent of $2,500 was allowed by a jury in the Civil Superior court this afternoon in the breach of promise suit of Marie Iverson of New York against Edward Gannon of this city. Miss Iverson sued for $5,000. Gannon is a traveling salesman, residing at 373 Arctic street. He was a former proprietor of a pharmacy in East Main street, but disposed of the property last June.
The case was given to the jury shortly after 12:30 o'clock. They returned with their verdict in less than an hour. It is probable that the case will not be appealed, as Attorney Israel Cohn, counsel for Gannon, did not make motion to the court that the verdict of the jury be set aside. Gannon some time ago was lodged in jail through his surrender by his bondsman, Henry E.
Shannon, but later obtained other bondsmen. He has not any property in his name, though last June he disposed of his drug store of which he was the sole proprietor.

BAR HARBOR EXPRESS IS DERAILED

While Moving 60 Miles an Hour Train Leaves Track and Rolls Down Embankment

Thirty Passengers Escape
Practically Uninjured
Under Circumstances Almost Miraculous.

(Special from United Press.)
Clinton, Mass., March 22.—Running 60 miles an hour to make up time, the New York to Portland Express, also the Bar Harbor Express, left New York and Maine Railroad, early today, rolled down a steep embankment, and as if by a miracle, only two men were killed and 30 others injured.

The Bar Harbor Express, a passenger and Edward Mayer, baggagemaster of Portland, both received scalp wounds and were sent to the Clinton Hospital.

The New York to Portland Express, over the Boston & Maine Railroad, left New York at 10:40, last night, and was due in Portland at 8 a. m., today, running via Worcester, Lowell and Nashua.

The Express was made up of three express cars, a combination car, a coach and the New York to Portland Express. All the cars and the engine
remaining on the iron. The three express cars and the coach went down the 25 foot embankment, the combination car and the sleeper, though derailed, did not go over.

Boston, March 22.—At the office of the general manager of the Boston & Maine line, today it was stated that no cause had yet been ascertained for the derailed of the Bar Harbor Express. It was denied that anyone had been seriously injured. The west bound tracks were cleared at 9 a. m.
The Bar Harbor Express is one of the finest trains running between New York and Northern New England
points.

MURDER TRIAL IS ADJOURNED IN CONFUSION

Viterbo, March 22.—Another tumultuous scene took place at the murder trial of Camorria today, when the prosecution exhibited the watch and ring of the murdered Genaro Cuoco-lo to the prisoners. The watch was found in the possession of Giuseppe Salvi, one of the prisoners, belonged to Cuoco-lo.

Informers exhibited a ring which he knew the articles were Cuocolo's and was met with a torrent of curses from the prisoners.

Enrico Alfano, head of the Camorra, called upon his dead brother to witness that the police were trying to murder him in their effort to force a confession from him. Salvi admitted today that he was a "good thief." He denied that he was a member of the Camorra.

The wife of Morro De Gennaro, the youngest of the prisoners, fainted at today's session, which was adjourned in confusion.

FIRST AEROPLANE FLIGHT MADE OVER HAVANA

Havana, March 22.—The first aéroplane flight ever made over Havana was accomplished today by St. Croix Johnstone, the Canadian aviator.
Thoussende watched him circle over the city in a half hour's flight.

POWDER HOUSE WRECKED BY DYNAMITE BLOW

Sandusky, O., March 22.—One hundred pounds of dynamite exploded early today from an unknown cause at the powder house of the American Cyanide Company. The powder house and two railroad cars were wrecked and a night watchman was badly injured.

remaining on the iron. The three express cars and the coach went down
the 25 foot embankment, the combination car and the sleeper, though
derailed, did not go over.

Boston, March 22.—At the office of
the general manager of the Boston & Maine line, today it was stated that
no cause had yet been ascertained for
press. It was denied that anyone had
been seriously injured. The west
bound tracks were cleared at 9 a. m.
The Bar Harbor Express is one of the
finest trains running between New
points.

Viterbo, March 22.—Another tumultuous scene took place at the murder
ring of the murdered Genaro Cuoco-
lo to the prisoners. The watch was
found in the possession of Giuseppe Salvi, one of the prisoners, belonged
to Cuoco-lo.

Informers exhibited a ring which
he knew the articles were Cuoco-
curses from the prisoners.

Enrico Alfano, head of the Camorra,
called upon his dead brother to wit-
murder him in their effort to force a confession from him. Salvi admitted
denied that he was a member of the Camorra.

The wife of Morro De Gennaro, the
youngest of the prisoners, fainted at
today's session, which was adjourned
in confusion.

FIRST AEROPLANE FLIGHT MADE OVER HAVANA

Havana, March 22.—The first aéro-
plane flight ever made over Havana
was accomplished today by St. Croix Johnstone, the Canadian aviator.
Thoussende watched him circle over
the city in a half hour's flight.

POWDER HOUSE WRECKED BY DYNAMITE BLOW

Sandusky, O., March 22.—One hundred pounds of dynamite exploded early today from an unknown cause at
the powder house of the American
jured.

WOMEN'S VOTE WORKS HAVOC WITH SOCIALISTS AND TACOMA SALOON MEN

Nominate Large Number of Members of School Board in Milwaukee

(Special from United Press.) MILWAUKEE, March 22.—All political precedents were set at naught and politicians here, today, are all at sea as the result of yesterday's school board primary when the women of Milwaukee polled more than 10,000 votes.

The women, after a vigorous campaign, succeeded in defeating the Socialist slate for Milwaukee's school board. Two Socialists were nominated and women placed 12 non-partisan candidates in nomination to oppose. Of the 14, four are to be elected. Politicians here are surprised at the way the highly efficient Socialist organization in Milwaukee was overwhelmed by the non-partisan feminine vote. In some of the residence districts of the city the women voters outnumbered the men, but the average for the city was about two men voters to one woman voter.

Tacoma, Wash.—The voters adopted the anti-treating ordinance. Women cast almost a solid vote in its favor and carried the day as most of the men voting opposed the ordinance.

Tarrytown, N. Y.—Bond issue of $75,000 for improved water system carried by small majority, women voting solidly in favor while most male voters opposed.

Mamaroneck, N. Y.—Votes of women property owners elected Dr. John F. Hunter, people's candidate, village president over both old party candidates.

West Orange, N. J.—Women voters elected Mrs. Harriet Jenkin in Ardley, a member of the School Board over male opponents. Committee of women got Thomas A. Edison to vote their ticket, first time he ever voted at school election.

Glen Ridge, N. J.—Women's club and Civic Association elected Mrs.
Mary L. Hinrichs member of School Board, defeating male aspirants.

Morristown, N. J.—Women's candidates for membership School Board snatched victory by men.

Sea Cliff, L. I.—Women property owners forced through bond issue for new dock and steam fire engine.
